

BHB Radio #1
:60

Voice: Announcers #1 & #2: Two male NASCAR announcers. Southern accents. Older in their 40s or 50s. The guys are upbeat enthusiastic and somewhat dramatic. Think Fred Willard in Best in Show. Announcer #3: Plays it straight, professional and trustworthy. Strictly a voice over as opposed to a character playing a part.

Audio:

Sounds of a NASCAR race provide background ambiance. Speeding cars, cheering fans etc.

VO:

Announcer #1: Oh boy, the competition has been fierce here tonight at the blueharbor 200!

Announcer #2: Dale Jr. and Tony Stewart battling it out, neck and neck!

Announcer #1: These guys have been here signing autographs for Neon Blue checking account holders for hours, putting it all on the line like true champions.

VO:

Announcer #1: Uh-oh looks like Stewart's having some trouble out there. Yep, I think his pen is out of ink.

Announcer #2: Gosh, you know I've seen this before, and it's always heartbreaking.

VO:

Announcer #1: Wait, wait! He's got a new pen, he's still going! This is amazing!

VO:

Announcer #3: When you sign up for blueharbor bank's Neon Blue high-performance checking account before May 15th, you could be one of 200 people to win an evening of barbeque, autographs and pictures with Dale Jr. and Tony Stewart. Neon Blue gives you a stellar 5.25 percent interest rate and tons of perks to amp up your checking everyday. Visit BlueHarborBank.com for all the details.

VO:

Announcer #1: I've heard of trading paint before, but I've never seen anyone trade ink like that.

Announcer #2: This is truly one for the autograph books.

VO:

Legal copy :5 sec